

Infant and Toddler Daily Detailed Plan

Instructions for feeding:

Any special dietary restrictions, including, without limitation, any allergies to food:

A schedule of times for feeding:

Bottles:

Food:

Whether the child will be fed breast milk, formula or solid food (infants under six months of age may not be offered any solid foods or fruit juices unless the school has written permission from the child's family or physician).

If the child will be fed breast milk or formula, when to begin feeding solid food (infants under six months of age may not be offered any solid foods or fruit juices unless the school has written permission from the child's family or physician).

Likes and dislikes of certain foods:

Instructions for sleeping (how does your child like to sleep, example; pacifier, rocked, etc...)?

Non-food allergies:

Ideal daily schedule:

Things your child will need:

- 2 crib sheets; 2 blankets; items needed for each day (bowl/plate, cup, spoons/forks, bottles, bibs); diapers; wet wipes; creams or ointments; 2 sets of extra clothes, including shoes for outdoor time.